Brief Description of Arguments Presented:

The examiner and the Applicant's representative Andrew R. Smith (below-signed) discussed the prior art of record and the difference between the claims, previous claim amendments, and the art of record. No exhibits, illustrations, prior art, prior art rejections, or any other pertinent matters were discussed during the telephonic interview. Examiner and applicant discussed the significance of amendments to the admin and change routine limitations in the independent claims and new claim 85. Examiner agreed that the amendments were not disclosed in the art of record, as currently understood, and further examination of these references and search was required.
